

Brittany Little, FNP-C

Brandon, MS

601-431-6288

Objective: To obtain a challenging position in the field of FNP that will allow professional growth, opportunities for advancement and a chance to use and contribute my education and job experience.

Education

- Master of Science in Nursing, University of Southern Mississippi, Dec/2012
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing, University of Southern Mississippi, May/2010
- Associate Degree in Arts, Copiah Lincoln Community College, May/2008

Certificates/Licenses

- RN License R884999 6/4/10; exp 12/31/22
- APRN License R884999 12/9/14; exp 12/31/22
- AANP Certification F121228 12/26/12; exp 12/25/22

Employment History

Jackson Pulmonary Associates, Jackson, MS

Nurse Practitioner

June/2013 – Present

- Inpatient/hospital patient evaluation and treatment
- Pulmonary and sleep clinic patient care provider

Mississippi Baptist Medical Center, Jackson, MS

Education Coordinator/APRN Clinical Liaison

Jan/2013 – May/2013

- Nurse training/orientation for new RN hires
- Served as member of APRN practice board

Mississippi Baptist Medical Center, Jackson, MS

Critical Care Staff RN

May/2010 – Jan/2013

- Critical care nursing

Professional Skills

- Mechanical ventilation management
- Arterial blood gas interpretation
- Pulmonary function test interpretation
- Chest x-ray interpretation
- CPAP, Bipap, and noninvasive mechanical ventilator management
- Chest tube removal
- Specialized and proficient in care of pulmonary disease and sleep disorders
- Trained in family practice including pediatrics, obstetrics in uncomplicated pregnancy, gynecology, and psychiatric disorders
- ACLS and BLS trained and certified

Honors

- Sigma Theta Tau National Honor Society
- Highest Honors in BSN program
- Recipient of the MSN Award for FNP program

Memberships/Associations

American College of Chest Physicians, Glenview, IL

Current member

Sept/2014 – Present

References

- Available upon request